WHATEVER YOUR HANDICAP,
COME PLAY WITH US,
AND WE ALL WIN!!

Monday March 19, 2007 - Nashville, TN - No matter what your handicap, you'll want to mark your calendars and come out for an afternoon of Golf at Pine Creek Golf Course located at 1835 Logue Road Mt. Juliet, TN 37122, 615-449-7272x1, info@pinecreekgolf.net.

SMEI Nashville's Annual Golf Tournament will be teeing off at 1pm to benefit Saddle Up!, Nashville's oldest and largest therapeutic riding program for children with disabilities.

Registrations for individuals and teams are available along with tee and green sponsorships. And if you can't participate in the Golf Scramble, but would like to support Saddle Up!, then you can donate items to the Silent Auction. Auction items must be at least $20 in value. If you would like to donate items, please contact Matt Lawson at matt.lawson@rjyoung.com or Donna Spears at donna.spears@bankofamerica.com. To learn more about this wonderful program, please visit their website at www.saddleupnashville.org.

SMEI Nashville is a leadership organization hosting monthly seminars with outstanding leaders in the community. The monthly meeting series called "Thinkers from Outside the Box" has packed the house and meets every 2nd Tuesday at Maggiano's Little Italy from 11am to 1pm.

Coming up, April 10th, 2007, The Learning Curve is a new slant on our Thinkers from Outside the Box series featuring leaders who have experience in best practices and proven successful business marketing and sales management methods.

For more information about the Golf Scramble or our monthly luncheon programs, visit our website at nashville.smei.org. or call SMEI-Nashville's executive director Karen Grove at (615) 531-4043.
