ADAPTIVE RIDING PROGRAM INFORMATION

Saddle Up!'s Adaptive Riding (AR) program is an equine-assisted service where participants work on their mounted and unmounted horsemanship skills. Our PATH International Certified Instructors adapt the lesson for the purpose of contributing positively to the cognitive, physical, emotional and social well-being of children with disabilities. Secondary benefits that have been observed by Saddle Up! families include improvements in balance, endurance, coordination, communication, speech, attention, and much more. Our Adaptive Riding program serves children with disabilities from the age of 4 through their 19th birthday.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

Saddle Up!'s Adaptive Riding program is a year round program where children from the age of 4 through their 19th birthday get to work on their mounted and unmounted horsemanship skills. Participants are assigned to a weekly lesson led by a PATH International Certified Instructor. Lessons can last anywhere from 30 minutes to 1 hour and can include up to 4 participants.

ADAPTATIONS

Saddle Up!'s PATH International Certified Instructors are trained to adapt many different types of resources within the lesson to enhance a participant's abilities. Participants are provided a leader for their horse and sidewalkers as necessary to help support them throughout their lesson. Tack and lesson equipment is selected to meet the needs of the participants and many adaptations can be made for comfort, fit, and ease of use. Lesson instruction is enhanced as each instructor teaches to each participant's learning style.

PROGRESS & GOALS

Saddle Up! developed and uses RIDES® as our system of assessment for the Adaptive Riding program. For more information, visit our RIDES® informational page. The RIDES® program allows our PATH International Certified Instructor to teach mounted and unmounted skills and to set and measure participant goals and objectives, from the fundamentals to cantering. Goals are based on the participant's abilities and include family input. At the end of each session, families are updated via an End of Session Report on how their child has worked to attain their goals.
